Ron Bergamo Television Scholarship

From left to right: Jane Bergamo, Walter Cronkite, and Ron Bergamo

Ron Bergamo was a native Arizonan, who worked as a general manager for stations in Kansas and Texas before returning to Arizona in 1998 to head up Channel 10. Ron changed the image of the station and the caller to KSAZ, which stands for the "Spirit of Arizona". The Ron Bergamo Television Scholarship was created in memoriam to help future television professionals realize their dreams.

One award of up to $2,000 per academic year for up to two years or sixty credit hours.

To apply you must:

- Plan to attend a Maricopa Community College.
- Explain financial need.
- Have a minimum 2.75 GPA, which you must maintain throughout the academic year to remain eligible.
- Enroll in a minimum of 9 hours per semester during the 2009-2010 academic year.
- Be a U.S. citizen and Arizona resident for tuition purposes.
- Be enrolled in a Television Production, Broadcasting, Television Sales/Marketing or Management program. Preference will be given to students who also donate their time to non-profit or community service organizations, are Arizona natives, or are children of U.S. Military veterans.
